PRESS RELEASE

Bicyclist Fatally Struck by Truck

Sumner, WA— On September 18, 2008, a bicyclist died after falling into the path of a truck. At 7:25 am, Sumner Police Department received a report of an individual struck by a truck on Stewart Road in Sumner.

The bicyclist, a 22-year-old male, was riding west-bound to work behind his friend. He was on the gravel shoulder when he lost control of his bike. He fell onto Stewart Road and into the path of a truck hauling gravel, also traveling west-bound. Although wearing a helmet, he died at the scene.

The incident is under investigation although no citations have been made at this time.
