PRESS RELEASE

Detective Dorr Retires from Sumner Police

Sumner, WA— Detective Dennis Dorr, a 22-year veteran of the Sumner Police Department, announced his retirement last week. His last day on the force will be at the end of May. Detective Dorr has served in law enforcement for 30 years, and with most of his career in Sumner, he served the community in a variety of roles.

Detective Dorr began with Sumner Police in 1986 under Chief Hyland and Mayor Lewis Noel. He started as a Patrol Officer and later served as Shift Commander, Acting Sergeant, Detective and K-9 Officer, his favorite duty with faithful partner Sam.

Said Police Chief John Galle, “Over the years, Dennis and his wife Linda have been a big part of the department, of the City and of the community. They opened up their home and hearts over the years to everyone and that will not be forgotten.”

Detective Dorr vows to take full advantage of his love of the outdoors in his retirement.
