Sumner Arts Commission's Youth Programs Offer Adventure

This summer, the Sumner Arts Commission invites children of all ages to explore the world around them in two remaining free programs.

WHEN: The Reptile Man, August 21, 1 pm
Friendship Folktales from Japan, August 23, 1 pm

WHO: The Reptile Man, also known as Scott Peterson, invites children to get close to snakes, lizards and all things reptile as he dispels myths of these cold-blooded friends.

In Friendship Folktales from Japan, Koto master Elizabeth Falconer combines puppets, music, and stories to take children to the forests and magical places of Japan.

WHERE: In the Robert Miller Gymnasium behind Daffodil Valley Elementary School at 1509 Valley Avenue

COST: Free

SPONSORS: Sumner Arts Commission, in partnership with the Sumner/Bonney Lake Parks & Recreation Department.

DETAILS: More information is available at www.ci.sumner.wa.us or call 253-863-8300.
